Welcome to KUCOM Player's second production for 1990.

We have chosen three French farces written by Feydeau and called it "Farce to Farce".

There will be two 15 minute intervals. This is an ideal time to stretch the legs, get a drink, and peruse the program posters on the balcony.

For your comfort and pleasure, "The Kitchen", located on the front balcony, will be open before the first play, during the two 15 minute intervals, and especially after the show. The intimate balcony setting is ideal for post-play discussions with the cast and crew.

"The Kitchen" has a variety of liquid refreshments - Tea and coffee, soft drinks (lemonade, coke-a-cola, diet coke, orange, lemon, soda water, sarsaparilla, tonic water, ginger beer, and golden pash), orange juice drink, wine (moselle, riesling and claret), beer (XXXX, Powers, Fosters, 2.2 and Swan 0.9) and champagne.

Please feel free to take your drinks in with you while you enjoy the show. Try not to spill them onto the other patrons when you fall about laughing.

Toilets are situated inside the building. Ask any of the crew for directions.

For the comfort of other patrons the insides of the KUCOM Theatre Playhouse is a non-smoking area.

Thankyou for your patronage. We are sure you will enjoy the show.
