THE CAST

KEN ROGERS — Ken is the COMMUNITY THEATRE'S very efficient secretary and also a valuable acting member. Ken's last play was "BOEING-BOEING" and he was also seen in the small role of the Professor in "WHITE HORSE INN". Tonight as Paul he once again shows his versatility.

LINESE SMITH — This is Linese's first appearance with the COMMUNITY THEATRE but she has appeared with COMEDY PLAYERS. Tonight as Corrie she shows her potential for future straight roles.

ADRIAN SAKRZEWSKI — A committee member of the COMMUNITY THEATRE Adrian is also one of its most versatile actors. Panto, Musical Comedy, Drama or Comedy, he handles them all equally well. Tonight as Victor his flair for comedy once again comes to the fore.

JILL LUTON — Jill last appeared as one of the hostesses in "BOEING-BOEING." She was also a very hard working member of the backstage crew of "GIRL IN MY SOUP", helping with the massive number of props needed for that show. Tonight she plays the part of Mother — a different type of role — but she handles it with ease and competence.

JOHN BUTTEL — John is making one of his now rare appearances in a speaking role. Over the years John has been a very valuable member of the COMMUNITY THEATRE, both as an actor and making scenery. Tonight he is definitely "type cast" as the Telephone Man but proves he should come out of retirement more often.

CHARLES IVIN — Charles' appearance tonight as the Delivery Man is very small but in any play each part is important. Next year Charles will be doing his first production of a full length play for the Theatre, he has produced a number of workshop plays. We thank him and wish him well.
