

A word from the President

Welcome to our third production for 1999, "The Opposite Sex" by David Tristram. This is a modern play, very entertaining and we are happy to have such a talented cast. As this year, 1999, is designated as the year of comedy for Kucom, this play most definitely falls into that category. Sit back and enjoy the repartee and antics of the cast under the direction of Jim Kelly.

For those who are interested in our next production - Auditions will be held on Tuesday October 5th at 7.30pm here at Kucom Theatre. The production will be the Farndale Ladies Guild production of Charles Dickens "A Christmas Carol".

Also, another M.A.P.S. night (Music-Art-Poetry) will be held here at Kucom on Friday October 22nd at 7.30pm. Everyone is very welcome. These nights feature members of the writer's group reading their own work, some folk music and readings of prose and poetry. A gold coin admission. Supper is served, so just roll up, you will enjoy yourself. Hope to see you there.

Director's Welcome

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome everyone to this production of "The Opposite Sex". This has been one of the funniest productions I have directed for a long time. The cast and crew were just excellent to work with and made my job as director an easy one. I would also like to welcome newcomers Luke Townson, Heather Sinclair and Amelia Jewell, and also welcome back Geoff Stewart-McLean who has been absent for too long. You will all agree that I have chosen a truly professional cast. Everyone was a joy to work with. A special thank you from myself to everyone who has helped me over the past 8 weeks and also you, the audience for your attendance.

If you have enjoyed tonight's performance and would like to become involved in any aspect of our theatre life feel free to speak to any of our cast or crew for details
