

A word from the President

Kucom Theatre Inc is happy to be part of the Mackay Arts Festival this year with our production of Ian Austin's "And So Say All Of Us".

This play was chosen especially, as it is written by a Queenslander, Ian Austin, is written about your average Aussie suburban battler and his family, is an hilarious comedy full of great characters, and we thought it was just the play for the Arts Festival.

It is always so good to laugh, and the Mackay Arts Festival is all about that, laughter, enjoyment of the senses, and not forgetting entertainment - all of which is contained in Ian Austin's "And So Say All Of Us".

Kucom Theatre wishes to thank the following:

Denise Orman

Dar'cy Sharpe of 4CRM

Director’s Notes

The physical directing of 10 actors on our Kucom Theatre stage, has been an experience. Sometimes great fun, sometimes, well, ‘nuff said! Ian Austin has written that rarity, a true blue Aussie farce, and we all have had fun producing his play. We, director and cast, had to work through the laughter barrier, before we could become serious about playing this comedy. It has been a pleasure working with the cast of “And So Say All Of Us”.

Dolly and Harry Doncaster are holding a party for their 25th Wedding Anniversary. Step up onto their back porch and celebrate with them.

If you have enjoyed tonight’s performance and would like to become involved in any aspect of our theatre life, feel free to speak to any of our cast or crew for details.
