

KUDOS THEATRE
WELCOMES YOU

TO CLOUD 9

SWEENEY

TODD

for an Evening of

• CULINARY • MUSICAL
&
DRAMATIC DELIGHTS

.....

ADMISSION 3d.
TO TOILET

Previous to the rise of the curtain at quarter before eight o'clock, precisely

AN EXCELLENT REPAST

of broth, assorted roast meats with vegetables, and plum duff, will be presented for your delectation.

Simultaneously, an entertainment will commence in which the items will be introduced in the following manner:

Act First: Mr. Geoffrey McLean will offer a stirring rendition of a popular song.

Act Second: Miss Lyndall Franklin will perform a dance of surpassing elegance.

Act Third: Mr. William Hendry, Mr. Kenneth Jensen, Mr. Kenneth Martin, Mr. David Shepberd under the direction of Mr. Brian Martin will perform a medley of popular songs.

Act Fourth: Your chairman, Mr. Adrian Shirley will indulge in some comic by-play with Mr. Kenneth Sanders.

Act Fifth: Miss Pauline Fitzgerald will enchant you in song with her rendition of "Joshua-bi!"

Act Sixth: Mr. Bruce Shepberd joins Miss Fitzgerald for a duet.

Act Seventh: Messrs. Hendry, Jensen, Martin & Shepberd display yet again the musical skills of Mr. Brian Martin.

The action of the drama which follows, takes place in London in the 1840's and concerns the joint activities of Sweeney Todd, a barber of Fleet Street and Mrs. Kate Lovett.

The public are respectfully informed that the

DRAMATIC AMUSEMENT

this evening will be under the direction of MR. IAN HOBDAV, assisted by Mrs. Judith Anderson and will be that much admired melodramatic spectacle in two acts to commence at nine o'clock precisely with one interlude during which the chairman, Mr. Adrian Shirley will lead you in sung greetings to those celebrating anniversaries of birth or marriage.

SWEENEY TODD THE BARBER

DRAMATIS PERSONAE

Mr. Melvin Bell in the character of Sweeney Todd, the barber of Fleet Street.

Mr. Kenneth Sanders in the characters of Fizekial Smith, a mechanic, and Sir William Brandon, a judge.

Miss Jennifer Dancer in the character of Mrs. Ragg, a poor woman.

Mrs. Lana Duffy in the character of Tobias Ragg, her son, an apprentice boy.

Mr. Bruce Shepberd in the character of Mark Ingestre, a mariner.

Mr. William Hendry in the character of Jean Parmine, a lapidary.

Mrs. Beverley Murphy in the character of Mrs. Lovett, Todd's accomplice in guilt.

Mr. Graham Murphy in the character of Doctor Aminadab Lupin, a wolf in sheep's clothing.

Mr. Derrick Fox in the character of Sydney Williams, a lad with an appetite.

Miss Pauline Fitzgerald in the character of Mrs. Fanny Fogg, the keeper of the mad house.

Mr. Jamie Doyle in the character of Colonel Eustace Jeffrey of the Indian Army.

Mrs. Sharyn Steller in the character of Miss Jobanna Oakley, a young lady in love.

Mr. Christopher Woodhouse in the characters of a court-house usher and a madhouse warder.

ing Machines,

ONE

VICTORIA (God Bless Her)
SYDNEY STREETS.

arts desire,

all ewellers

STREET

The performance will be supported musically by MADAME BARBARA BOWERMAN. Machinery is under the direction of Mr. Kerry Frahm, assisted by Mr. Lesley Eliason and Mr. Michael Keogh, with sounds and illuminations by Mr. & Mrs. Robert Garland, dresses by Mrs. Judith Anderson and decorations by Miss Ann Hoffman. Prompter is Mrs. Gail Minus, make up artist is Mrs. Penelope Brown and hostesses are Mrs. Kerry Shirley, Miss Julie Dancer and Miss Helen Condell. Host is Mr. Geoffery McLean, daguerrotypes by Miss Monica Stewart and public notices by Mrs. Kerry Shirley.

We respectfully wish to thank all those who have lent their kind assistance especially MESSRS. ASTRAL ADVERTISING

Craving your further indulgence, the Company will present in July, a "FARCICAL AMUSEMENT" under the direction of Mr. Geoffrey McLean.

The Company begs to assure the gentry and inhabitants of Mackay that no exertion has been spared to make the entertainment worthy of notice and most respectfully solicits their kind support and patronage, which it will be ever our study to merit.

— VIVAT REGINA —

Printed in Old Mackay Town by Hatfields Printers.

NOT
...
A V
A I
L
A B
L
E
...
A T

Losing

Morrison

WOOD
AMBROSE C