ARE YOU FARNDALE MATERIAL?

Director Anne Clutterbuck is on the lookout for four slightly unhinged females and one male (hinged or otherwise) to entertain our audiences in the final Kucom production for 2026, the Farndale Avenue Housing Estate Townswomen's Guild Dramatic Society Production of A Christmas Carol.

This is not for the faint-hearted.

There will be serious comedy, lots of dressing-up, and some moments of pure chaos.

Can you handle it?

AUDITIONS are this Sunday, 23rd August. Download your audition pack here.

DID WE MENTION IT'S OUR 80TH BIRTHDAY NEXT YEAR? (PART 4)

CLAIM THE DATE!

Saturday 10th July 2027

Kucom Theatre invites you to join us in celebrating 80 years of continuous operation as Mackay's longest-running community theatre. We're planning a Gala Dinner at Kucom on the eve of our 80th birthday, with a celebrity MC and a retro "Walk the Red Carpet" theme harking back to the 1940s when Mackay Community Theatre was first established.

You can follow our Facebook page for more information about this event as planning progresses.

Watch for tickets going on sale early in the new year, but don't wait too long to book—numbers are strictly limited.

80TH ANNIVERSARY PROJECTS—A SNEAK PREVIEW

Kucom's 80th Anniversary Subcommittee is up and running, with a focus on some exciting initiatives for next year including:

- Professional upgrade of the Kucom website to incorporate a 'living history' archive as an ongoing project—thanks to our local service provider, Matilda Internet
- A catered Gala Dinner to be held at Kucom on Saturday 10th July 2027 with guest speakers and a 1940s flavour
- A display of posters and memorabilia in the Gordon White Library during June and July 2027
- As a special nod to our founding members, the 2027 program will open with a season of the same one-act plays presented by the newly formed Mackay Community Theatre in 1947
