Happy Hours and Club Nights

The monthly Happy Hour has become a feature of the Kucom year, with members and guests enjoying an hour and a half of relaxed socialising from 6 to 7.30pm on the last Friday of each month (except in months where we have a production running). No pressure to perform, but .....

..... sometimes a Happy Hour gets rescheduled as a Club Night if we can come up with a suitable theme—our resourceful Committee can always find an excuse for some extra jollification—and it's then that we invite members and guests to take the stage and contribute to the evening's entertainment with songs, poems, skits, monologues or short rehearsed readings. Who knows what undiscovered talent is lurking out there, just waiting to be discovered at a random Club Night?

2027—A LANDMARK CELEBRATION

A potted history

On Friday 11 July 1947, a public meeting was convened in the Mackay Town Hall, 'for the purpose of forming a dramatic society for Mackay'. The Mackay Community Theatre produced 4 plays a year at the Olympic theatre which, with a seating capacity in excess of a thousand, was always well packed. When this theatre was demolished, the company moved to the Theatre Royal.

In the 1970s, a group of members, disillusioned with the way the group was manipulated, broke away to form Kudos Theatre. It functioned well for a couple of years, then an approach was made to the Mackay Community Theatre for a merger (rumour has it that Kudos had all the talent and the MCT had all the money!). The merger ensued, thus the 'Ku' from Kudos and the 'Com' from Community formed the Kucom Theatre Inc.

Kucom for many years occupied an old Queenslander (serendipitously located in Shakespeare Street) that had been gutted to form a theatre with a flat acting area and a raked seating capacity of 65. The Shakespeare Street theatre was sold in August 2010, and December 2011 saw the last production in that venue.

Over the next 6 years we became a travelling theatre group, staging productions at various venues including the MECC, the Conservatorium, and Paxton Markets. Committee meetings and rehearsals were held in The Salvation Army rooms on Gregory Street, while the CWA and Studio 53 provided the venue for various Club Nights. But negotiations were going on in the background, and February 2018 saw the opening of our new purpose-built theatre at 1 Snow Wright Court, Andergrove.

And so here we are today .....

..... just a year and a half away from celebrating our 80th birthday as Mackay's longest-running community theatre! We're on the lookout for photos, programs, reviews, news clippings, and personal reminiscences from anyone who cherishes a memory of Mackay Community Theatre, Kudos or Kucom. Eighty years of continuous operation is well worth celebrating—please help us to make next year's anniversary a time to remember. We're waiting to hear from you.
