Dark of the Moon was first presented at the 46th Street Theatre, New York City on 8th March, 1945 and tells the story of John the Witch Boy's love for a Human, Barbara Allen, their subsequent marriage and the trials and tribulations this unusual couple faces in married life.

The job of the live Theatre is to communicate human experiences to an audience hopefully to evoke an emotional response. Your personal reaction to our play tonight will indicate the degree to which we have been successful.
