FROM THE DIRECTOR:

After much frustration, hair tearing and cast replacements, this play has finally opened. It feels like we have rehearsed forever. Myself and the Committee of Kucom Theatre must apologize for any inconvenience the postponement of this production may have caused you but also thank you for bearing with us and still attending tonight's performance. The cast have rallied forth to present a laughter filled production, even though at times through out rehearsals they could have killed me and I them, however I am sure you are going to enjoy tonight's performance. I must give special thanks to Petar Grulovic, who's determination and enthusiasm to keep this production going when mine had almost given up, lifted me and encouraged me to keep on slogging during the hard times, and also to George Christensen who has stepped in at the last minute to fill the role of Dr. Rance (a huge role). Please excuse him as there are times when he may need to refer to the script during the performance, but I can assure you this won't be an issue, it is a process that has happened many times, quite successfully, even in professional productions. May I quote an old saying "It was the amateurs, who built 'Noah's Ark' and the professionals who built the Titanic". I would like to take this opportunity also, to thank the rest of the cast for their hard work over the past few months, it's been hard work, but worth it in the end. Our next two productions for the year promise to be shows not to miss our next "The Haunted Lounge and Recessed Dining Nook at Farndale Castle" is already in rehearsal and is being directed by Heather MacTavish. And another comedy "One For The Road" directed by Peter Rosier to be auditioned in September, refer back of program for further details. Thank you again for being here tonight, I sincerely hope you enjoy tonight's performance. I look forward to seeing you at our future productions.
