

ENGAGEMENT EXTRAORDINARY

The Community Theatre has great pleasure in presenting to the discerning theatregoers of the Port of Mackay the soul-stirring drama of human trials and tribulations

ONLY AN ORPHAN GIRL

By HENNING NELMS

(We wish to announce that this is not a sex or problem drama used to gull the public into believing that it is not a play for the ladies)

Mr. R. RIORDAN has been employed to devise the action of this magnificent and alluring drama which will be executed to-night by the FULL strength of the company.

Waiters will pass among you to minister to your needs for LIQUID REFRESHMENT.

Babies in ARMS not admitted. GENTLEMEN may smoke.

(Sole beneficiary of this gala charity performance is the Mackay branch of the Sub-normal Children's Welfare Association.)

WINE, DINE and DANCE

(STABLES PROVIDED)

Nothing can approach the conviviality and camaraderie to be found every night (except, by virtue of the law, Sunday) at the Boomerang Caravanserai, where only the finest wines, ales, comestibles and entertainment can be expected. On Saturdays you may dance to the music of the finest assemblage of instrumentalists to be found in the Port of Mackay.

"SEEING IS BELIEVING"

We often hear this said, but it is not always to be relied upon. You may see many things, yet conviction is wanting and if you want conviction, substitute "hearing is believing." This is specially so in regard to music, which always carries pleasurable convictions with it. The next best thing to personally hearing the world's greatest singers and bands is hearing their songs and pieces reproduced on the . . . DRAMATIS PERSONAE . . .

Arthur Rutherford (from the City) JIM BROWN
Dick Perkins (a clean-cut farm lad) RAY RIORDAN
Swem Perkins (his father) NEVILLE HALL
Nellie (an orphan girl) VALERIE KAY
Ethel Rutherford (a fair stranger) MARJORIE TADMAN
Mrs. Perkins (a mother) BIDDY DOCHERTY
Widow Appleby (a neighbour) PAM BATZLOFF
Lucy (a ray of sunshine) JOY SMITH

The Management has had PAINS to insure that the DRAMA is presented with ALL the effects that contributed so largely to its TREMENDOUS Broadway SUCCESS.

The scintillating and tuneful MUSICAL INVESTITURE has been composed and arranged in its entirety by Mrs. DENISE STEVENS and will be conducted by her in person at each and every PERFORMANCE in all its SYMPHONIC SPLENDOR.

SYNOPSIS OF SCENES

(Triumph of Thespis and Terpsichore)

- Act I. The Farmyard — "Ruined! Ruined!"
Act II. The Barn — "Marry me, and the mortgage shall be yours."
Act III. (Scene 1): The Farmhouse — "Don't despair, Paw, it's not midnight yet!"
(Scene 2): The Snowstorm — "This time there is no escape!"
Act IV. The Sawmill — "You have balked me once too often."

Men and women in the AUDIENCE will kindly refrain from cracking peanuts during the PERFORMANCE. Gentlemen and ladies do not need to be thus cautioned.

In accordance with the LAVISH scale shown in every detail of this UNPRECEDENTED PRODUCTION, an entirely new set of SCENERY has been provided, each scene painted with INDELIBLE realism by a MASTER artist.

During the intermission there will be COMMUNITY SINGING and Olio-entertainment carefully selected by Mr. C. BAILLIE for its MORAL value.

Boisterous and rowdy conduct will not be TOLERATED by the Management.

The marvellous LIGHTING effects have been achieved ENTIRELY by electricity.

Great care has been taken to EXPUNGE from the Olio-entertainment any items that might be DISTASTEFUL to ladies and young persons.

MANUAL PROPULSION

Bicycles of the finest workmanship for the sporting gentleman, or the individual who seeks the sheer pleasure of manual propulsion, are being imported by
